Instructional Plan
Understanding Lesson Purpose and Student Outcomes Direct students to read their task individually and silently: In the introduction of The Speeches of Fannie Lou Hamer: To Tell It Like It Is, the authors quote Reverend Edwin King’s opinion of Fannie Lou Hamer’s oratorical skills: “After she became the orator, she began, picking and choosing the spicy parts she’d put in her speeches, she was always ‘doing the best she had with whatever she had.’” Although Reverend King’s appraisal of Mrs. Hamer oratorical skills was favorable, others have criticized her skills and style. Select a speech from The Speeches of Fannie Lou Hamer: To Tell It Like It Is that we have not read together, write an essay in which you evaluate the overall strength of the argument, including how effectively Fannie Lou Hamer uses rhetoric to advance her point of view and/or achieve her purpose. Support your claim with specific and sufficient evidence from her speech. Activity 1: Choose the Speech Have students choose one speech from The Speeches of Fannie Lou Hamer: To Tell It Like It Is edited by Meagan Parker and Davis W. Houck to complete their task. Activity 2: Complete the Performance/Culminating Task Have students complete their task. Reflection and Closing: Students write a letter to their parents or to a student who will experience this culminating task next year and explain what they learned and how these skills can help them in real life. They should also include their favorite parts of the culminating task.

Note: This could be finished after the students have received their scores.
